

Consideration for Induction

Students

1. The nominee must have distinguished himself/herself through exemplary achievement at Goffstown High School .
2. The nominees' year of graduation must not be within the last five years.
3. The nominee must have displayed exemplary sportsmanship and moral conduct.
4. The nominee must have excelled in one or more activities, bringing honor to themselves and Goffstown High School. Examples:
  - a. All State honors( music, art, athletics)
  - b. All American or National Interscholastic Honors
  - c. Other extraordinary accomplishments such as establishing school or state records in his or her sport.
  - d. Brought honor to the school in post high school accomplishments.
  - e. Note: not all of these examples are necessary for induction.
5. The nominee may have distinguished himself or herself in an activity that brought honor to himself or herself in the community or state or country in her/his chosen profession.

Staff

Staff members, (including non-teacher advisors or coaches), who have distinguished themselves over their GHS careers by their contribution to the education and lives of students.

1. Distinguished acts above and beyond the normal expectations of the job.
2. Exemplary contributions sustained over time.
3. Exemplary recognition at the state or national level.
  - a. development of special or unique programs
  - b. state or nationally recognized awards such as teacher of the year or coach of the year.
  - c. inventions, publications or other achievements that contribute to the life and education of students at GHS.

Contributors

Community members, school administrators, teachers, staff, etc. who have made exemplary contribution to the life of students and education at GHS

1. Distinguished acts above and beyond the normal expectations of the job.
2. Exemplary contributions sustained over time.
3. Exemplary recognition at the state or national level.
  - a. development of special or unique programs
  - b. state or nationally recognized awards such as teacher of the year or coach of the year.

c. inventions, publications or other achievements that contribute to the life and education of students at GHS.